

The Greater Hamilton and Area Chapter of the Gerontological Nursing Association of Ontario (GNAO) together with the Art Gallery of Hamilton invites you to attend:

Contemporary Gerontological Nursing:
*Shifting to a Model of Well-being Focused on Meaningful Social Engagement to Promote Healthy Aging

by : Laurie Kilgour-Walsh, Interim Head, Wellness & Education, AGH; Janis Humphrey and Maureen Montemuro, both retired RNs & volunteer docents with Artful Moments

Thursday September 28, 7pm at the Art Gallery of Hamilton, 123 King Street West

Join us for an evening of Artful Moments, a program designed to make art accessible, experiential, and enjoyable for older persons with a range of abilities including people living with dementia. Hear how the program was developed and evaluated, our future plans, and learn how gerontological nurses and health care workers can promote this program with clients. You will have a chance to engage in program activities yourself!

Admission is free, light refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome (including GNAO members, AGH members and volunteers, and members of the public)
