

RNAO Algoma Chapter Fall Newsletter

Newsletter Highlights

Save The Date

Contest Time

What We've Been Up To

Join Now

Featured Business

Your Opinion Matters

Looking to share your business information?

SAVE THE DATE! RNAO Algoma Region will be hosting our Fall Tour & Chapter AGM “Air Out Your Dirty Laundry” this October 25th, 2023 6:00PM - 7:30PM! The public, nurses, & all health care professionals are invited to join us virtually, along with President-Elect Lhamo Dolkar, to discuss thoughts, ideas, & questions related to nursing health & healthcare. You can win a chance to receive a $25 gift card from Algoma Chapter RNAO!

We are also celebrating our nurses reaching 25 year mark and 40 years with RNAO! Congratulations and thank you for being part of RNAO!

25 years with RNAO

Lorena Bressan
Yvette Corbiere
Marilyn King

RN Emeritus (40 years with RNAO)

Susan Jenkinson
Deborah Shubat

SAVE THE DATE! Join us on September 29th, 2023 as Karima Velji – Chief of Nursing and Professional Practice, speaks on promoting BPSO Maamwesying. More information to follow! To Be Confirmed

LOGO CONTEST

We are looking for inspiration from our members to design & create RNAO Algoma Chapters very own logo! Help us stand out & represent what Northern nursing is all about. Email your ideas to algomarnao@gmail.com by November 13th, 2023 for your chance to win an awesome prize!

WHAT WE'VE BEEN UP TO

RNAO AGM June 22 - 24th, 2023 - Algoma Chapter’s Policy and political action ENO, Brett Corbiere, attended this years RNAO AGM as Algoma Chapter's Consultation Rep. “It was an amazing opportunity for members to meet in person following the COVID-19 Pandemic. There was a lot of energy and excitement brought forth by RNAO members. 11 new resolutions were voted on. During the panel on discrimination in health care our very own Maxine Lesage provided a poignant discussion on First Nation and Inuit issues.” Please visit <https://rnao.ca/events/agm#resolutions> for more information!

PPAN Meeting August 16th, 2023 - attended by RNAO Algoma Chapter's President Adrienne Kappes. Discussion focused on the need for fair wages and travel compensation for Public Health Nurses. A hard copy petition was circulating to submit to our Federal Government.

