

Nursing Research Interest Group Educational Webinar

SPECIAL GUEST LECTURE

Tuesday, March 26, 2019
12-1pm EST

ROOM 4U19 HSC McMASTER UNIVERSITY OR JOIN VIA OTN OR ONLINE

Presentation by Dr. Melissa Kimber, PhD

Assistant Professor in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioural Neurosciences at McMaster University, and Core Member of the Offord Centre for Child Studies

Title of Presentation:

Preparing for a Career in Academia: What to Consider, When to Apply and What to Expect

We are very pleased to present this special guest lecture by Dr. Melissa Kimber. Dr. Kimber received her PhD in Health Research Methodology from McMaster University. Informed by clinical and research training and experience, Dr. Kimber's program of work examines the independent and intersecting antecedents, correlates, and outcomes of child maltreatment and mental disorders among children and adolescents; with a special interest in eating disorders, emotional abuse, emotional neglect, children's exposure to intimate partner violence, the developmental and contextual influences of these experiences, as well as the implementation and evaluation of preventative interventions. Dr. Kimber also has expertise mentoring PhD graduates in preparing for and successfully obtaining new faculty appointments at Universities across Canada.

Please join us in person, room 4U19 HSC at McMaster University, or online

At an OTN site, you can log in via:

<http://schedule.otn.ca/tsm/portal/nonclinical/details.do?request.requestId=92323404>

Not at an OTN site? Please log in to <http://webcast.otn.ca/>

Click on live events, then public events and enter event ID #92323404

If you are unable to join us online, you may also call in to 1-905-415-5796

The archived webinar will also be available after the presentation

For more information, please contact Amy Wright, NRIG Chair at amyl.wright@utoronto.ca