

R.N.A.O. Sudbury Chapter Student Award

Award Description

The RNAO Nursing Student Sudbury Chapter Award recognizes a current undergraduate nursing student who is actively involved in the strategic direction of RNAO and contributes to the image of the nursing profession. An award will be given to a BScN student at Cambrian College; Laurentian University in both the French and English program. The student will be awarded $100 and will be selected from the applicants by RNAO Sudbury Chapter Executive.

Interested applicants must submit a 200-300-word description of their activities, how these meet the mission of RNAO and briefly describe what being a member of RNAO means to them.

Eligibility:

- Must be a student who is in good standing in a BScN program within the year of the award application and attend a Post-Secondary institution within Sudbury.
- Student must be a current member of RNAO
- Student must be actively involved in the RNAO Sudbury chapter.

In order to be eligible for consideration to receive the award, you must complete the submission form and send it to the attention of David Groulx President, Sudbury RNAO chapter at rnaosudbury@gmail.com no later than April 1st of each year.