

View this email in your browser

Are looking for a Mental Health professional?
Advertise with us!

Free job ads! Limited time until September 19, 2020!

CFMHN will waive the $300 fee to advertise job postings on the CFMHN website. Our website targets the specific professionals you are seeking in the field of mental health nursing. Leveraging the network of CFMHN, you will reach your targeted group quickly for the results you need to fill your open position/s.

Take advantage of this limited time offer and post your position/s today. All advertisements are posted for 30 days from the date of posting.

Want to post a job? Follow the link.

Job Posting:

If you are looking for an opportunity to contribute your experience, knowledge, and passion in a meaningful way, CLBC is the place for you!

Community Living British Columbia [CLBC] is a crown corporation responsible for arranging supports and services to individuals with developmental disabilities and their families. CLBC staff strives to adhere to the corporate vision of 'Lives filled with possibilities in welcoming communities.'

Click here to see the full job posting.

Please note: If you are an RNAO/MHNIG Member - You need to register on this site in order to receive CFMHN Member Benefits, including FREE Webinar Registration. When you apply, please allow a week for processing.

CFMHN Membership Directory

Dear CFMHN Members,

We are launching a Member Directory as a benefit to all members.

Once complete, it will be a comprehensive collection of information that will span from coast to coast and it will allow you to seek and share information among fellow medical colleagues.

We ask that you add as much information about yourself as you can to increase the level of available knowledge.

Please follow the link to edit your Member Directory profile.

unsubscribe from this list
update subscription preferences

